- (i) for use initially as a form for concrete, and
  - (ii) to remain permanently attached to the concrete to serve as the primary insulation for the completed building to prevent heat loss from the building;
- (c) fastening components specifically designed for use with polystyrene forming blocks described in paragraph (b);
- (d) chemicals obtained for use to make spray polyurethane foam insulation designed primarily to prevent heat loss from a building;
- (e) window insulating systems, consisting of a transparent or translucent film and including frames or integral parts of the systems, installed in an existing window and designed primarily to retain heat in a building by absorbing solar heat or reducing drafts;
- (f) weather stripping and caulking materials designed to prevent heat loss from a building;
- (g) insulation, other than tapes and sealants, designed to prevent the transfer of heat to or from hot water tanks, hot or cold water pipes or ductwork;
- (h) wind-powered generating equipment specifically designed to produce mechanical or electrical energy;
- (i) generators, controllers, wiring and devices that convert direct current into alternating current, if they are obtained together with and as part of wind-powered generating equipment described in paragraph (h);
- (j) solar photovoltaic collector panels;
- (k) controllers, wiring and devices that convert direct current into alternating current, if they are obtained together with and as part of a system that includes solar photovoltaic collector panels;
- (l) solar thermal collector panels;
- (m) wiring, pumps, tubing and heat exchangers, if they are obtained together with and as part of a system that includes solar thermal collector panels;
- (n) micro-hydro turbines and generators designed to produce up to 150 kW of mechanical or electrical energy;
- (o) controllers, wiring, tubing and devices that convert direct current into alternating current, if they are obtained together with and as part of a system that includes micro-hydro turbines or generators described in paragraph (n);
- (p) equipment specifically designed to produce mechanical or electrical energy from ocean tides, currents or waves;
- (q) the following, if obtained together with and as part of a system that includes equipment described in paragraph (p):
  - (i) generators, wiring, controllers, monitors, pumps, tubing, floats, water fences and devices that convert direct current into alternating current;
  - (ii) aids to navigation as defined in section 125 of the Canada Shipping Act, 2001;

PART 5 – PRODUCTION MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT*Division 1 – Definitions and Interpretation*Definitions

90 (1) In this Part:

“cost of development”, in relation to Part 4 software, means the

- (a) direct cost of materials,
- (b) direct cost of labour, and
- (c) Part 4 software development overhead

of the software developer, but does not include tax under Part IX of the Excise Tax Act;

“cost of extracting or processing”, in relation to petroleum, natural gas or minerals, means the

- (a) direct cost of materials,
- (b) direct cost of labour, and
- (c) extraction or processing overhead

of the oil and gas producer or mine operator, but does not include tax under Part IX of the Excise Tax Act;

“develop”, in relation to Part 4 software, does not include

- (a) providing a service, or
- (b) testing the Part 4 software, unless the testing is one step in, or occurs immediately after, the development of the Part 4 software and occurs at the software development site;

“local government body” has the same meaning as in Schedule 1 of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act;

“local government corporation” means a corporation whose taxable income, determined for the purposes of the Income Tax Act (Canada), is exempt from tax imposed under section 149 (1) (d.5) or (d.6) of that Act;

“logging” means

- (a) felling or bucking trees,
- (b) skidding or otherwise moving trees or logs to a landing or other first point of accumulation, or
- (c) loading, unloading, sorting, storing or processing trees or logs at landings, log dumps, sort yards, dry land sorts, booming grounds or mill yards,

but does not include

- (d) construction or maintenance of landings, log haul roads or other roads, or
- (e) silviculture;

“machinery or equipment” includes apparatus;

“manufacture”, subject to subsection (2), means

- (a) to fabricate or manufacture tangible personal property to create a new product that is substantially different from the material or tangible personal property from which the new product was made, or
- (b) to process tangible personal property by performing a series of operations or complex operation that results in a substantial change in the form or other physical or chemical characteristics of the tangible personal property,

but does not include performing a non-qualifying activity;

“manufacturer” means a person who manufactures a particular class of tangible personal property

- (a) for sale, if there is a reasonable expectation that the total value of sales of that class of tangible personal property will exceed $30 000 per year,
- (b) for lease or for the person’s own business use, if there is a reasonable expectation that the total manufacturing cost of that class of tangible personal property will exceed $30 000 per year, or
- (c) for both a purpose referred to in paragraph (a) and a purpose referred to in paragraph (b), if there is a reasonable expectation that the total manufacturing cost of that class of tangible personal property will exceed $30 000 per year;

“manufacturing cost”, in relation to a manufacturer or a local government body or local government corporation that manufactures tangible personal property, means the

- (a) direct cost of materials,
- (b) direct cost of labour, and
- (c) manufacturing overhead

of the manufacturer, local government body or local government corporation, but does not include tax under Part IX of the Excise Tax Act;

“marketable product” means petroleum or natural gas, whether it occurs naturally or results from the refining or processing of petroleum or natural gas, that is

- (a) available for sale for direct consumption as a domestic, commercial or industrial fuel or as an industrial raw material, or
- (b) delivered to a storage facility;

“mine operator” means a person who extracts or processes minerals

- (a) for sale, if there is a reasonable expectation that the total value of sales of those minerals will exceed $30 000 per year,

PROVINCIAL SALES TAX EXEMPTION AND REFUND REGULATIONPart 5 – Production Machinery and Equipment

- (b) for the person's own business use, if there is a reasonable expectation that the total cost of extracting or processing those minerals will exceed $30 000 per year, or
- (c) for both a purpose referred to in paragraph (a) and a purpose referred to in paragraph (b), if there is a reasonable expectation that the total cost of extracting or processing those minerals will exceed $30 000 per year;

“non-qualifying activity” means any of the following:

- (a) growing, harvesting or producing agricultural or aquaculture products, or raising livestock;
- (b) logging;
- (c) the production of television programs, radio programs, motion pictures, commercials, master films or master video tapes, or any similar product in electronic format;
- (d) providing a service, other than a service described in section 103 (2) or (3) [service providers];
- (e) in respect of manufacturing tangible personal property or processing petroleum, natural gas or minerals, carrying out an activity that is
  - (i) cleaning, painting, staining, blending, combining, grading, grouping, mixing, packaging, re-packaging, sorting, storing, screening, cutting, drying or testing,
  - (ii) transforming tangible personal property from a gaseous, liquid or solid state to another one of those states by means of a change in temperature or pressure, or
  - (iii) generating heat, unless,

- (iv) in the case of manufacturing tangible personal property, the applicable activity
  - (A) is combined with another activity that is not a non-qualifying activity, and
  - (B) occurs at the qualifying part of the manufacturing site,
- (v) in the case of processing petroleum or natural gas, the applicable activity
  - (A) is combined with another activity that is not a non-qualifying activity, and
  - (B) occurs at the well site or at the qualifying part of the processing plant or refinery, or
- (vi) in the case of processing minerals, the applicable activity
  - (A) is combined with another activity that is not a non-qualifying activity, and
  - (B) occurs at the qualifying part of the mine site;

“processing plant” means a plant in which petroleum or natural gas is processed and includes any of the following units, or a unit that is a combination of any of the following units:

- (a) a dehydrator;
- (b) a separator;
- (c) a sweetener;
- (d) a treater;

“qualifying minerals”, in relation to a mine operator, means minerals extracted or processed by the mine operator

- (a) for sale by the mine operator, or
- (b) for the mine operator’s own business use;

“qualifying part”, in respect of

- (a) a manufacturing site, means the part of the manufacturing site from the point at which the raw material is received to the point at which the finished product is first stored or first placed on a vehicle, railway rolling stock, vessel, aircraft or other conveyance for removal from the manufacturing site, whichever occurs first,
- (b) a processing plant or refinery, means the part of the processing plant or refinery up to the point at which the petroleum or natural gas being processed or refined has become a marketable product, and
- (c) a mine site, means the part of the mine site from the point at which the raw material is extracted from the ground to the point at which the finished product is first stored or first placed on a vehicle, railway rolling stock, vessel, aircraft or other conveyance for removal from the mine site, whichever occurs first;

“qualifying petroleum or natural gas”, in relation to an oil and gas producer, means petroleum or natural gas extracted or processed by the oil and gas producer

- (a) for sale by the oil and gas producer, or
- (b) for the oil and gas producer’s own business use;

“qualifying software”, in relation to a software developer, means Part 4 software developed by the software developer

- (a) for sale by the software developer, or
- (b) for the software developer’s own business use;

“qualifying tangible personal property”, in relation to a manufacturer, means tangible personal property

- (a) in the particular class of tangible personal property referred to in the definition of “manufacturer” in this subsection, and

- (a) for sale, if there is a reasonable expectation that the total value of sales of that Part 4 software will exceed $30 000 per year,
- (b) for the person's own business use, if there is a reasonable expectation that the total cost of development of that Part 4 software will exceed $30 000 per year, or
- (c) for both a purpose referred to in paragraph (a) and a purpose referred to in paragraph (b), if there is a reasonable expectation that the total cost of development of that Part 4 software will exceed $30 000 per year;

“software development site” means the place at which a software developer is located when the software developer is developing Part 4 software, but, in respect of Part 4 software being developed for sale, does not include a place at which the purchaser of that Part 4 software is located.

- (2) The definition of “substantially” in section 1 [definitions] of the Act does not apply to the definition of “manufacture” in subsection (1) of this section.

[am. B.C. Regs. 120/2013, s. 1; 90/2015, s. 2.]

Interpretation

- 91 (1) In this Part, a reference to use in relation to substantially or primarily does not include storing, keeping or retaining.
- (2) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), in this Part, the use of machinery or equipment in the construction of buildings, site preparation or the construction or maintenance of roads is not a use that qualifies the machinery or equipment for an exemption.
- (3) For the purposes of sections 94 [exploration for, discovery of or development of petroleum or natural gas] and 104 [logging], the use of machinery or equipment in site preparation is a use that qualifies the machinery or equipment for an exemption.
- (4) For the purposes of sections 96 [exploration for minerals or development of mines] and 97 [extraction or processing of minerals], the use of machinery or equipment in the construction or maintenance of roads within the qualifying part of a mine site is a use that qualifies the machinery or equipment for an exemption.

[am. B.C. Reg. 90/2015, s. 3.]

Division 2 – Exemptions for Machinery and Equipment*Definition

- 91.1 In this Division, “qualifying person” means a manufacturer, an oil and gas producer, a mine operator or a person who is entitled to obtain machinery or equipment exempt

[en. B.C. Reg. 120/2013, s. 2.]

Manufacturing

- 92 (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the following are exempt from tax imposed under Part 3 of the Act, other than Division 9 of that Part, if obtained by a manufacturer:
- (a) machinery or equipment obtained for use in British Columbia primarily and directly in the manufacture of qualifying tangible personal property;
  - (b) machinery or equipment obtained for use in British Columbia primarily and directly in
    - (i) the manufacture of tangible personal property, or
    - (ii) the development of Part 4 software for use in British Columbia in the manufacture of qualifying tangible personal property.
- (2) The exemption under subsection (1) applies only to machinery or equipment obtained for use primarily at the qualifying part of the manufacturing site.
- (3) The exemption under subsection (1) does not apply to
- (a) machinery or equipment, including transformers, pipes, valves, fittings, pumps, compressors and regulators, obtained for use in relation to the transmission or distribution of tangible personal property, or
  - (b) machinery or equipment obtained for use in relation to the transmission or distribution of Part 4 software.

[am. B.C. Reg. 216/2013, App. 1, s. 20.]

Software development

- 93 (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the following are exempt from tax imposed under Part 3 of the Act, other than Division 9 of that Part, if obtained by a software developer:
- (a) machinery or equipment obtained for use in British Columbia primarily and directly in the development of qualifying software;
  - (b) machinery or equipment obtained for use in British Columbia primarily and directly in the manufacture of tangible personal property for use in British Columbia in the development of qualifying software.
- (2) The exemption under subsection (1) applies only to machinery or equipment obtained for use primarily at the software development site.
- (3) The exemption under subsection (1) does not apply to machinery or equipment obtained for use in relation to the transmission or distribution of Part 4 software or tangible personal property.

Exploration for, discovery of or development of petroleum or natural gas

- 94 (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), machinery or equipment is exempt from tax imposed under Part 3 of the Act, other than Division 9 of that Part, if the machinery or equipment is obtained
- (a) by a person who, for commercial purposes, regularly engages in the exploration for, discovery of or development of petroleum or natural gas, and
  - (b) for use substantially in the exploration for, discovery of or development of petroleum or natural gas.
- (2) The exemption under subsection (1) applies only to the following machinery or equipment:
- (a) drilling rigs, including the following machinery or equipment that is part of a drilling rig:
    - (i) derricks;
    - (ii) substructures and foundations;
    - (iii) circulating systems;
    - (iv) pumps;
    - (v) cement equipment;
    - (vi) engines or power plants;
  - (b) truck-mounted service rigs;
  - (c) portable doghouses, portable winches and portable pickers;
  - (d) boilers and steamers, required for heating blowout preventers;
  - (e) parts of a pump truck, including
    - (i) pumps, tanks, lines, pipes, controls, manifolds, drop boxes, mixing hoppers and valves, and
    - (ii) engines and transmissions;
  - (f) hardware obtained for use during the drilling process, including drill bits, drill collars, drill pipes, blowout preventers, casing, tubing, fittings, couplings and thread protectors;
  - (g) machinery or equipment obtained for use in well logging and drill stem testing, including instrumentation;
  - (g.1) machinery or equipment obtained for use in hydraulic fracturing during the development of petroleum or natural gas, including hydration units or trailers, proppant blenders and fracturing pumps;
  - (h) machinery or equipment obtained for use during the production testing phase, including separator vessels, dehydrators and heaters, pressure piping systems and appurtenances, flare stacks, pumps and motors;
  - (i) shelters obtained for use substantially as protective coverings for machinery or equipment referred to in any of paragraphs (a) to (h);

PROVINCIAL SALES TAX EXEMPTION AND REFUND REGULATIONPart 5 – Production Machinery and Equipment

- (2) The exemption under subsection (1) applies only to machinery or equipment obtained for use primarily at the well site or at the qualifying part of the processing plant or refinery.
- (3) The exemption under subsection (1) does not apply to
  - (a) machinery or equipment, including transformers, pipes, valves, fittings, pumps, compressors and regulators, obtained for use in relation to the transmission or distribution of tangible personal property, or
  - (b) machinery or equipment obtained for use in relation to the transmission or distribution of Part 4 software.
- (4) Generators to be located primarily at a well site are exempt from tax imposed under Part 3 of the Act, other than Division 9 of that Part, if the generators are obtained
  - (a) by an oil and gas producer, and
  - (b) for use in relation to the extraction or processing of qualifying petroleum or natural gas.

[am. B.C. Reg. 216/2013, App. 1, s. 20.]

Exploration for minerals or development of mines

- 96 (1) Subject to subsection (2), machinery or equipment is exempt from tax imposed under Part 3 of the Act, other than Division 9 of that Part, if the machinery or equipment is obtained by a person who, for commercial purposes, regularly engages in the exploration for minerals or the development of mines and that machinery or equipment is
- (a) obtained for use substantially and directly in the exploration for minerals or the development of mines,
  - (b) a generator or motor for use substantially and directly to operate machinery or equipment for the use referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection, or
  - (c) safety equipment, a pump, ventilating equipment or a compressor obtained for use substantially in the exploration for minerals or the development of mines.
- (2) The exemption under subsection (1) does not apply to cement trucks.

- (e) ground-penetrating radar equipment and side-looking aperture radar;
  - (f) equipment for remote sensing, including
    - (i) ultraviolet lamps, and
    - (ii) reflectance, infrared and hyperspectral spectrometers;
  - (g) instruments or equipment for seismic prospecting, including the recording system, seismic instrumentation, geophones, cables, data processing units, global positioning and navigation systems, recorder box, blasting system, blaster and controller, seismic drilling equipment, heli-drills, enviro-drills, vibrators and integrated navigation systems;
  - (h) scintillometers, spectral gamma-gamma density and Geiger-Muller counters, gamma-ray spectrometers, potassium gradiometers and other instruments for radioactive methods of geophysical prospecting;
  - (i) acoustical survey equipment, including sonar, side-scanning sonar and full wave form sonic loggers;
  - (j) electrical amplifying devices, electronic amplifying devices and electrical thermostats, designed for use with any of the machinery or equipment described in paragraphs (a) to (i).

Pollution control

- 99 Machinery or equipment obtained for use substantially and directly in the detection, prevention, measurement, treatment, reduction or removal of pollutants in water, soil or air is exempt from tax imposed under Part 3 of the Act, other than Division 9 of that Part, if
- (a) the pollutants are attributable to
    - (i) the manufacture of tangible personal property, or
    - (ii) the extraction or processing of petroleum, natural gas or minerals,
  - (b) the machinery or equipment is obtained by a qualifying person, and
  - (c) the machinery or equipment is obtained for use substantially at, as applicable,
    - (i) the qualifying part of the manufacturing site, processing plant, refinery or mine site,
    - (ii) the well site, or
    - (iii) a tailings pond related to mining the minerals.

Waste management

- 100 (1) In this section, “waste gas machinery or equipment” means pipes, valves, fittings, pumps, compressors and regulators, and other related machinery or equipment, obtained for use solely to transmit
- (a) within a natural gas processing plant, or

(b) from a natural gas processing plant to a disposal well

waste gas composed primarily of hydrogen sulphide and carbon dioxide for use solely to inject the gas into the disposal well for permanent disposal.

(2) Waste gas machinery or equipment is exempt from tax imposed under Part 3 of the Act, other than Division 9 of that Part, if the waste gas machinery or equipment is obtained by an oil and gas producer.

(3) Machinery or equipment obtained for use in British Columbia substantially and directly

(a) in carrying refuse or waste from machinery or equipment that is exempt under

(i) section 92 [manufacturing],

(ii) section 95 [extraction or processing of petroleum or natural gas], or

(iii) section 97 [extraction or processing of minerals], or

(b) for exhausting dust or noxious fumes from machinery or equipment referred to in paragraph (a)

is exempt from tax imposed under Part 3 of the Act, other than Division 9 of that Part, if

(c) the refuse, waste, dust or noxious fumes are attributable to the manufacture of tangible personal property or the extraction or processing of petroleum, natural gas or minerals,

(d) the machinery or equipment is obtained by a qualifying person, and

(e) the machinery or equipment is obtained for use substantially at, as applicable,

(i) the qualifying part of the manufacturing site, processing plant, refinery or mine site,

(ii) the well site, or

(iii) a tailings pond related to mining the minerals.

Transmission or distribution of tangible personal property or software

101 (1) Machinery or equipment is exempt from tax imposed under Part 3 of the Act, other than Division 9 of that Part, if

(a) the machinery or equipment is obtained by a manufacturer for use in British Columbia primarily and directly in the transmission or distribution of tangible personal property or Part 4 software at the qualifying part of the manufacturer's manufacturing site,

(b) the tangible personal property or Part 4 software to be transmitted or distributed is primarily

(i) qualifying tangible personal property,

- (ii) tangible personal property or Part 4 software that is to be attached to or processed, fabricated, manufactured or incorporated into qualifying tangible personal property, or
    - (iii) tangible personal property or Part 4 software that is to be attached to or processed, fabricated, manufactured or incorporated into tangible personal property or Part 4 software for use in the manufacture of qualifying tangible personal property, and
  - (c) the machinery or equipment is obtained for use primarily at the qualifying part of the manufacturing site.
- (2) Machinery or equipment is exempt from tax imposed under Part 3 of the Act, other than Division 9 of that Part, if
- (a) the machinery or equipment is obtained by a software developer for use in British Columbia primarily and directly in the transmission or distribution of tangible personal property or Part 4 software at the software developer's software development site,
  - (b) the tangible personal property or Part 4 software to be transmitted or distributed is primarily
    - (i) qualifying software,
    - (ii) Part 4 software that is to be attached to or processed, fabricated, manufactured or incorporated into qualifying software, or
    - (iii) tangible personal property or Part 4 software that is to be attached to or processed, fabricated, manufactured or incorporated into tangible personal property or Part 4 software for use in the development of qualifying software, and
  - (c) the machinery or equipment is obtained for use primarily at the software development site.
- (3) Machinery or equipment is exempt from tax imposed under Part 3 of the Act, other than Division 9 of that Part, if
- (a) the machinery or equipment is obtained by an oil and gas producer or mine operator for use in British Columbia primarily and directly in the transmission or distribution of tangible personal property or Part 4 software at the oil and gas producer's well site, the qualifying part of the oil and gas producer's processing plant or refinery or the qualifying part of the mine operator's mine site,
  - (b) the tangible personal property or Part 4 software to be transmitted or distributed is primarily, as applicable,
    - (i) qualifying petroleum or natural gas or qualifying minerals,
    - (ii) tangible personal property that is to be attached to or processed, fabricated, manufactured or incorporated into qualifying petroleum or natural gas or qualifying minerals, or

Electrical machinery or equipment

- 102 (1) In this section, “electrical machinery or equipment” means
- (a) transformers, and
  - (b) converters, inverters, regulators, breakers and switches, designed for use with transformers.
- (2) Electrical machinery or equipment is exempt from tax imposed under Part 3 of the Act, other than Division 9 of that Part, if
- (a) the electrical machinery or equipment is obtained by a manufacturer of qualifying tangible personal property, other than electricity, for use in British Columbia substantially in the transmission or distribution of electricity at or to the qualifying part of the manufacturer’s manufacturing site,
  - (b) the electricity is for use
    - (i) primarily and integrally in the manufacture of qualifying tangible personal property, or
    - (ii) primarily to power machinery or equipment that is exempt under the following provisions of this regulation:
      - (A) section 92 [manufacturing];
      - (B) section 99 [pollution control];
      - (C) section 100 [waste management];
      - (D) section 101 [transmission or distribution of tangible personal property or software];
      - (E) section 111 [machinery or equipment to operate, control or monitor qualifying machinery or equipment], and
  - (c) the electrical machinery or equipment is to be situated at the manufacturing site.
- (3) Electrical machinery or equipment is exempt from tax imposed under Part 3 of the Act, other than Division 9 of that Part, if
- (a) the electrical machinery or equipment is obtained by a software developer for use in British Columbia substantially in the transmission or distribution of electricity at or to the software developer’s software development site,

- (2) Machinery or equipment obtained by a person who provides a service to a manufacturer is exempt from tax imposed under Part 3 of the Act, other than Division 9 of that Part, if
- (a) the service consists of manufacturing in British Columbia tangible personal property for the manufacturer and is provided to, or results in the creation of, tangible personal property that is to be, or is to be attached to or processed, fabricated, manufactured or incorporated into, the manufacturer's qualifying tangible personal property,
  - (b) the machinery or equipment is obtained for use primarily and directly in providing the service,
  - (c) the service is provided primarily at the qualifying part of
    - (i) the manufacturer's manufacturing site, or
    - (ii) the service provider's manufacturing site, and
  - (d) there is a reasonable expectation that the total value of sales of services, provided to manufacturers, that meet the requirements of paragraphs (a) to (c) will exceed $30 000 per year.
- (3) Machinery or equipment obtained by a person who provides a service to an oil and gas producer or mine operator is exempt from tax imposed under Part 3 of the Act, other than Division 9 of that Part, if
- (a) the service
    - (i) consists of manufacturing in British Columbia tangible personal property for the oil and gas producer or mine operator and is provided to, or results in the creation of, tangible personal property that is to be attached to or processed, fabricated, manufactured or incorporated into the oil and gas producer's qualifying petroleum or natural gas or the mine operator's qualifying minerals, or
    - (ii) consists of extracting or processing for the oil and gas producer or mine operator petroleum, natural gas or minerals in British Columbia that are to be, or are to be attached to or processed, fabricated, manufactured or incorporated into, the oil and gas producer's qualifying petroleum or natural gas or the mine operator's qualifying minerals,
  - (b) the machinery or equipment is obtained for use primarily and directly in providing the service,

Logging

- 104 (1) In this section, “skidway” does not include a road or landing.
- (2) Machinery or equipment is exempt from tax imposed under Part 3 of the Act, other than Division 9 of that Part, if the machinery or equipment is obtained by a person who, for commercial purposes, regularly engages in logging and that machinery or equipment is obtained
- (a) for use in logging substantially for
- (i) felling or bucking trees,
- (ii) removing logs from the stump and depositing the logs in a landing or other first accumulation point,
- (iii) loading, unloading, sorting, storing or processing trees or logs at landings, log dumps, sort yards, dry land sorts, booming grounds or mill yards, or
- (iv) developing skidways, or
- (b) for use substantially on a vessel and substantially for
- (i) launching or recovering, in relation to underwater logging operations, machinery or equipment that is exempt under paragraph (a) (i) of this subsection, or
- (ii) producing, regulating, transmitting or distributing electricity to operate, in underwater logging operations, machinery or equipment that is exempt under this section.

Local government power generation

- 105 (1) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), machinery or equipment obtained for use in British Columbia is exempt from tax imposed under Part 3 of the Act, other than Division 9 of that Part, if the machinery or equipment is obtained by a local government body or local government corporation for use primarily and directly
- (a) to generate electricity,
- (b) to generate, at a cogeneration plant, electricity and heat, or
- (c) in the manufacture of tangible personal property for a use described in paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection.
- (2) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), machinery or equipment that is obtained by a local government body or local government corporation for use primarily and directly in the transmission or distribution of tangible personal property at a manufacturing site, at which electricity, or electricity and heat, referred to in subsection (1) is generated, is exempt from tax imposed under Part 3 of the Act, other than Division 9 of that Part, if the tangible personal property transmitted or distributed is primarily

- (a) electricity, referred to in subsection (1) (a), generated by the local government body or local government corporation,
  - (b) electricity and heat, referred to in subsection (1) (b), generated by the local government body or local government corporation at a cogeneration plant,
  - (c) tangible personal property that is for use as an input in the generation of electricity, referred to in subsection (1) (a), or the generation of electricity and heat, referred to in subsection (1) (b), at a cogeneration plant, or
  - (d) tangible personal property that is to be attached to or processed, fabricated, manufactured or incorporated into tangible personal property for use as an input in the generation of electricity, referred to in subsection (1) (a), or the generation of electricity and heat, referred to in subsection (1) (b), at a cogeneration plant.
- (3) The exemptions under subsections (1) and (2) apply only to machinery or equipment that is obtained for use primarily at the manufacturing site, at which the electricity, or electricity and heat, referred to in subsection (1) is generated, from the point at which tangible personal property or a power source that is an input in the generation is received to the point at which the electricity, or electricity and heat, is first stored or first available for use, whichever occurs first.
- (4) The exemptions under subsections (1) and (2) apply to a local government body or local government corporation only if the generation referred to in subsection (1) is for one of the following purposes:
- (a) for sale, if the local government body or local government corporation has a reasonable expectation that the total value of sales will exceed $30 000 per year;
  - (b) for its own use, if the local government body or local government corporation has a reasonable expectation that the total manufacturing cost of the electricity, or electricity and heat, will exceed $30 000 per year;
  - (c) for both a purpose referred to in paragraph (a) and a purpose referred to in paragraph (b), if the local government body or local government corporation has a reasonable expectation that the total manufacturing cost of the electricity, or electricity and heat, will exceed $30 000 per year.

- (b) assembled machinery or equipment referred to in section 108 [parts and materials]

that would be exempt under Division 2 of this Part if the machinery or equipment or assembled machinery or equipment were obtained on the relevant date as set out in subsection (2);

“modify”, in respect of qualifying machinery or equipment, means to facilitate or enhance the performance by the qualifying machinery or equipment of the function that the qualifying machinery or equipment performs in relation to the use that qualifies it as qualifying machinery or equipment;

“qualifying machinery or equipment” means machinery or equipment

- (a) that is owned or leased by a qualifying person, and
- (b) that is
  - (i) exempt machinery or equipment, or
  - (ii) excluded affixed machinery that would be exempt machinery or equipment if it were affixed machinery;

“qualifying person” means a person who is entitled to obtain machinery or equipment exempt under Division 2 of this Part from tax imposed under the Act.

- (2) For the purposes of this Division, the relevant date, referred to in the definition of “exempt machinery or equipment” in subsection (1), in respect of qualifying machinery or equipment referred to
- (a) in section 108 (1) [parts and materials] is the date on which the parts or materials referred to in that provision in relation to the qualifying machinery or equipment are obtained,
  - (b) in section 109 (1) [tangible personal property for use in providing services] is the date on which the tangible personal property referred to in that provision in relation to the qualifying machinery or equipment is obtained,
  - (c) in section 111 [machinery or equipment to operate, control or monitor qualifying machinery or equipment] is the date on which the machinery or equipment referred to in that provision in relation to the qualifying machinery or equipment is obtained,
  - (d) in section 112 (2) [software related to qualifying machinery or equipment] is the date on which the software referred to in that provision in relation to the qualifying machinery or equipment is obtained, or
  - (e) in section 113 [services related to qualifying machinery or equipment] is the date on which the related service referred to in that provision in relation to the qualifying machinery or equipment is provided.

modify qualifying machinery or equipment, are exempt from tax imposed under Part 3 of the Act, other than Division 9 of that Part, if the parts or materials remain part of, or attached to, the qualifying machinery or equipment after, as applicable,

- (a) the use of the parts or materials on the qualifying machinery or equipment, or
  - (b) the repair, maintenance or modification of the qualifying machinery or equipment.
- (2) Parts or materials obtained by a qualifying person to assemble machinery or equipment that would be qualifying machinery or equipment under Division 2 of this Part, if the assembled machinery or equipment were obtained by the qualifying person on the date on which the parts or materials are obtained, are exempt from tax imposed under Part 3 of the Act, other than Division 9 of that Part, if the parts or materials remain part of, or attached to, the assembled machinery or equipment after assembly.
- (3) Parts or materials obtained by a qualifying person to assemble a part that would be exempt under subsection (2) of this section, if the assembled part were obtained by the qualifying person on the date on which the parts or materials are obtained, are exempt from tax imposed under Part 3 of the Act, other than Division 9 of that Part, if the parts or materials obtained remain part of, or attached to, the assembled part after assembly.

Tangible personal property for use in providing services

- 109 (1) Subject to subsection (2), tangible personal property is exempt from tax imposed under Part 3 of the Act, other than Division 9 of that Part, if
- (a) the tangible personal property is obtained for use in British Columbia in the course of providing a service in relation to qualifying machinery or equipment,
  - (b) the tangible personal property is to remain part of, or attached to, the qualifying machinery or equipment after the service has been provided,
  - (c) either
    - (i) the service provided to the qualifying machinery or equipment is a related service, or
    - (ii) the qualifying machinery or equipment is excluded affixed machinery and the service provided to the qualifying machinery or equipment would be a related service if the qualifying machinery or equipment were affixed machinery, and
  - (d) the qualifying machinery or equipment is owned or leased by a qualifying person.
- (2) The exemption under subsection (1) does not apply to

- (a) tangible personal property, other than electricity used in an electrolytic process, obtained for use to produce energy or for use as a source of energy, or
  - (b) tangible personal property, if the service provider is to retain an interest in that tangible personal property after it has been made part of, or attached to, the qualifying machinery or equipment.
- (3) Parts or materials obtained by a person providing a service referred to in subsection (1) of this section to assemble tangible personal property that would be exempt under that subsection, if the assembled tangible personal property were obtained by that person at the time the parts and materials are obtained, are exempt from tax imposed under Part 3 of the Act, other than Division 9 of that Part, if the parts or materials remain part of, or attached to, the assembled tangible personal property after assembly.

Exclusions from exemptions under sections 108 and 109

110 Despite sections 108 [parts and materials] and 109 [tangible personal property for use in providing services], the following are not exempt under those sections:

- (a) gases, liquids or consumable solids;
- (b) tangible personal property obtained for use primarily for repairing, maintaining, modifying, assembling or making
  - (i) bases or foundations, that are or become a part of real property, for qualifying machinery or equipment, or
  - (ii) scaffolding, walkways, catwalks or similar items, unless such items
    - (A) are an integral part of the applicable qualifying machinery or equipment, and
    - (B) were obtained by the qualifying person as part of the applicable qualifying machinery or equipment.

Machinery or equipment to operate, control or monitor qualifying machinery or equipment

111 Machinery or equipment obtained by a qualifying person for use primarily to operate, control or monitor qualifying machinery or equipment is exempt from tax imposed under Part 3 of the Act, other than Division 9 of that Part, if the machinery or equipment is for use substantially at the applicable well site or the qualifying part of the applicable manufacturing site, processing plant, refinery or mine site.

Software related to qualifying machinery or equipment

- 112 (1) Subject to subsection (2), software is exempt from tax imposed under
- (a) Part 3 of the Act, other than Division 9 of that Part, or
  - (b) Part 4 of the Act, other than section 109 of that Part.
- (2) The exemption under subsection (1) applies only to software obtained by a qualifying person for use

Services related to qualifying machinery or equipment

- 113 A related service provided in relation to qualifying machinery or equipment is exempt from tax imposed under Division 2 of Part 5 of the Act, other than section 120.1 of that Part, if the related service is purchased by a qualifying person.

Division 4 – Exclusions from Exemptions*Tangible personal property excluded from exemptions
under Divisions 2 and 3

- 114 Despite Divisions 2 and 3 of this Part, the following are not exempt under those Divisions:
- (a) buildings, furnishings, camp equipment or machinery or equipment related to the use of a building as a building, other than shelters that are exempt under section 94 (2) (i) [shelters for machinery or equipment for petroleum or natural gas exploration, discovery or development];
  - (b) logging trucks, well-servicing trucks or any other vehicles designed to be ordinarily used on a public highway, other than
    - (i) truck-mounted service rigs that are exempt under section 94 (2) (b) [truck-mounted service rigs for petroleum or natural gas exploration, discovery or development], or
    - (ii) bulldozers, backhoes and excavators that are exempt under section 96 [exploration for minerals or development of mines];
  - (c) vessels, other than
    - (i) boom boats obtained by a person described in section 104 (2) [logging] for use substantially for one or more of the purposes described in paragraph (a) (iii) of that section, or
    - (ii) vessels obtained by a person described in section 104 (2) for use substantially in underwater logging operations to carry machinery or equipment that is exempt under that section for use for one or more of the purposes set out in paragraph (a) (i) or (ii) or (b) of that section;
  - (d) railway rolling stock, locomotive engines and non-turbine aircraft;
  - (e) portable or mobile electric generators and portable or mobile electric alternators, including drive motors for them, portable or mobile generator and alternator sets, stand-by electric generators and stand-by electric alter-

- 120 For the purposes of section 30 (7) (a) [evidence required to claim exemption in relation to tax payable in respect of vehicle] of the Act, in relation to a person who alleges that a vehicle is exempt under any of the tangible personal property exemption provisions, the Insurance Corporation of British Columbia is required to obtain a declaration in a form acceptable to the director.

Division 6 – Refund for Production Machinery and Equipment*Construction or maintenance of road for mine site

- 120.1 (1) If the director is satisfied that
- (a) a person obtained machinery or equipment, other than by leasing the machinery or equipment as a lessee, and paid tax imposed under Part 3 of the Act, other than Division 9 of that Part, in respect of the machinery or equipment,
  - (b) the person, for commercial purposes, regularly engages in the exploration for minerals or the development of mines,
  - (c) the machinery or equipment was obtained for use substantially and directly for the construction or maintenance of a road within what became the qualifying part of a mine site as a result of the development of a mine, and
  - (d) the machinery or equipment would have been exempt under section 96 or 97 of this regulation if what became the qualifying part of a mine site had been a qualifying part of a mine site when the person obtained the machinery or equipment,
- the director must refund to the person the amount of tax paid in respect of the machinery or equipment.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if, within 15 days after the date of purchase or the entry date of the machinery or equipment, the machinery or equipment is used, or allowed to be used, other than substantially and directly for the construction or maintenance of a road within what became the qualifying part of a mine site as a result of the development of a mine.
- (3) If a person
- (a) receives a refund under subsection (1) in respect of machinery or equipment, and
  - (b) subsequently uses the machinery or equipment, or allows the machinery or equipment to be used, for a purpose other than for use substantially and directly for the construction or maintenance of a road within what became the qualifying part of a mine site as a result of the development of a mine,
- the person must repay to the government an amount equal to the tax that would have been payable under section 82 [tax if property used for new purpose] of the Act as if the tax were payable under that section in respect of the use of the

Machinery or equipment leased for construction or maintenance of road for mine site*120.2 (1) If the director is satisfied that

- (a) a person leased machinery or equipment as a lessee and, in relation to a rental period under the lease, paid tax imposed under Part 3 of the Act, other than Division 9 of that Part, in respect of the machinery or equipment,
- (b) the person, for commercial purposes, regularly engages in the exploration for minerals or the development of mines,
- (c) at the time the lease was entered into the machinery or equipment was leased for use substantially and directly for the construction or maintenance of a road within what became the qualifying part of a mine site as a result of the development of a mine, and
- (d) the person has not, before the end of the rental period, used that machinery or equipment, or allowed that machinery or equipment to be used, for a purpose other than
  - (i) the particular purpose referred to in paragraph (c) of this subsection,
  - (ii) for use substantially and directly for the construction or maintenance of a road in the qualifying part of a mine site, or
  - (iii) another purpose for which that machinery or equipment would be exempt under section 96 or 97 of this regulation, the director must refund to the person the amount of tax paid in relation to the rental period under the lease.

“PHSA” means the Provincial Health Services Authority, a society incorporated under the Society Act.

- (2) Subject to this section, if the director is satisfied that an eligible charity, a health facility, a health authority or the PHSA paid tax under Part 3 of the Act in respect of medical equipment that was purchased

- (a) in whole or in part with charity funds of an eligible charity, and
  - (b) for use by a health facility to treat a patient or diagnose a patient’s ailments,
- the director must refund to the eligible charity referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection the lesser of

- (c) the amount of tax paid under Part 3 of the Act in respect of the medical equipment, and
- (d) the amount calculated under subsection (4) of this section in respect of the medical equipment.

- (3) Subject to this section, if the director is satisfied that an eligible charity, a health facility, a health authority or the PHSA

- (a) meets the requirements of subsection (2) (a) and (b) in respect of the medical equipment referred to in subsection (2), and
- (b) paid tax under Part 3 or Part 4 of the Act in respect of software that was purchased
  - (i) in whole or in part with charity funds of an eligible charity,
  - (ii) together with the medical equipment, and
  - (iii) for use to operate, control or monitor that medical equipment, the director must refund to the eligible charity referred to in paragraph (b) (i) of this subsection the lesser of

- (c) the amount of tax paid under Part 3 or Part 4 of the Act in respect of the software, and
- (d) the amount calculated under subsection (4) of this section in respect of that software.

PROVINCIAL SALES TAX EXEMPTION AND REFUND REGULATIONPart 6 – Refunds

- (4) The amount referred to in subsection (2) (d) in respect of medical equipment and in subsection 3 (d) in respect of software is equal to the amount determined by the following formula:

$$\text{amount} = \text{tax paid} \times \left[ \frac{\text{charity funds}}{(\text{price} + \text{tax paid})} \right]$$

where

charity funds = the total amount of charity funds of the eligible charity used to purchase the medical equipment or software;

price = the purchase price of the medical equipment or software;

tax paid = the amount of tax paid under Part 3 of the Act in respect of the medical equipment or under Part 3 or Part 4 of the Act in respect of the software.

- (5) An application by an eligible charity under section 165 [claim for refund] of the Act for a refund under subsection (2) or (3) of this section must include all of the following for each item of medical equipment or software purchased with charity funds of the eligible charity:
- (a) the name and address of the health facility in which the medical equipment is to be used;
  - (b) the amount of charity funds provided by the eligible charity that were used to purchase the medical equipment or software;
  - (c) a statement signed by an officer of the eligible charity certifying that charity funds of the eligible charity were used to purchase the medical equipment or software;
  - (d) if the medical equipment or software was purchased by a health authority, a health facility or the PHSA,
    - (i) documentation establishing that the eligible charity provided charity funds directly to the health authority, the health facility or the PHSA, as applicable, for the purpose of purchasing the medical equipment or software, and
    - (ii) a statement signed by an officer of the eligible charity authorizing the director to discuss the application with the health authority, the health facility or the PHSA, as applicable;
  - (e) if the medical equipment was purchased by a health authority or the PHSA, a statement signed by an administrator of the health authority or the PHSA, as applicable, certifying
    - (i) that the medical equipment is for use in the health facility referred to in paragraph (a) to treat patients or diagnose their ailments, and

Part 7 – Refunds and Credits for Multijurisdictional Vehicles

“prorate period amount” means the amount calculated under subsection (4) of this section for a vehicle;

“purchase price” has the same meaning as for the purposes of section 72 or 72.1 of the Act, as applicable;

“remaining balance amount” means the amount calculated under subsection (3) of this section for a vehicle.

- (2) The amount of the credit under section 72 (5) or 72.1 (5) of the Act for a vehicle,
- (a) if the vehicle ceases to be licensed under a licence to which a prorating agreement applies before the end of the vehicle licence period, is the sum of the remaining balance amount and the prorate period amount for the vehicle, and
  - (b) in any other case, is the prorate period amount for the vehicle.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2) of this section, the remaining balance amount for a vehicle must be calculated as follows:

$$\text{remaining balance amount} = \text{tax paid} \times \left( \frac{\text{months remaining}}{\text{total months}} \right)$$

where

tax paid = the tax paid under one or both of sections 69 [tax if multijurisdictional vehicle licensed] and 71 [adjustment of tax under section 69] of the Act in respect of the vehicle for the applicable period;

months remaining = the number of whole months left in the applicable period at the time that the vehicle ceases to be licensed under the licence to which the prorating agreement applies;

total months = the number of whole and partial months in the applicable period.

- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2) of this section, the prorate period amount for a vehicle must be calculated as follows:

$$\text{prorate period amount} = \text{purchase price} \times \text{total months} \times \text{average travel ratio} \times 7\%$$

where

purchase price = the purchase price of the vehicle;

total months = the number of whole months, up to a maximum of 60, in which the vehicle was licensed under the licence to which the prorating agreement applies, divided by 60;

average travel ratio = the average travel ratio during the total period the vehicle was licensed under the licence to which the prorating agreement applies.

Refund or credit of tax if fleet licensing changed

136 (1) In this section:

“applicable period”, in respect of a vehicle referred to in section 74 (1) of the Act, means the last vehicle licence period under the previous licence referred to in section 74 (1) (b) or (1.2) (b) of the Act;

“different fleet”, in respect of a vehicle referred to in section 74 (1) of the Act, means the different fleet referred to in section 74 (1) or (1.1) (c) of the Act.

(2) The amount of the credit under section 74 (2) of the Act or the amount of the refund under section 74 (3) of the Act for a vehicle must be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{amount of credit or refund} = \text{tax paid} \times \left( \frac{\text{months remaining}}{\text{total months}} \right)$$

where

tax paid = the tax paid under one or both of sections 69 [tax if multijurisdictional vehicle licensed] and 71 [adjustment of tax under section 69] of the Act in respect of the vehicle for the applicable period;

months remaining = the number of whole months remaining in the applicable period at the time the vehicle is licensed as part of the different fleet;

total months = the number of whole and partial months in the applicable period.

Refund if vehicle ceases to be multijurisdictional

137 (1) In this section, “applicable period” means the last vehicle licence period during which a vehicle referred to in section 74.1 (1) of the Act was licensed under a prorating agreement.

(2) The amount of the refund under section 74.1 (1) of the Act for a vehicle must be calculated as follows:

PROVINCIAL SALES TAX EXEMPTION AND REFUND REGULATIONPart 7 – Refunds and Credits for Multijurisdictional Vehicles

PART 8 – REFUNDS AND CREDITS FOR EXCLUSIVE PRODUCTS*Refund or credit if subsequent sale to exempt purchaser*140 If a person

- (a) is an independent sales contractor of a direct seller,
- (b) has obtained an exclusive product from the direct seller or another independent sales contractor of the direct seller,
- (c) has paid tax under section 99 [tax on acquisition of exclusive product by independent sales contractor] of the Act in relation to the exclusive product, and
- (d) has sold the exclusive product to a purchaser who was not liable to pay tax on that purchase, the direct seller may, within 180 days of the date on which the person paid the tax under section 99 of the Act, refund or credit to the person the amount of tax paid.

Refund or credit if subsequent sale for less than suggested retail price*141 If

- (a) a person
  - (i) is an independent sales contractor of a direct seller,
  - (ii) has obtained an exclusive product from the direct seller or another independent sales contractor of the direct seller,
  - (iii) has paid tax under section 99 [tax on acquisition of exclusive product by independent sales contractor] of the Act in relation to the exclusive product, and
  - (iv) has sold the exclusive product to a purchaser, and
- (b) the purchase price paid by the purchaser is less than the direct seller's suggested retail price,

the direct seller may, within 180 days of the date on which the person paid the tax under section 99 of the Act, refund or credit to the person an amount equal to the amount, if any, by which the amount of tax paid by the person under section 99 of the Act exceeds the amount of tax levied by the person on the purchase price of the exclusive product under section 180 [collection of tax by independent sales contractor] of the Act.

Refund or credit if exclusive product used by independent sales contractor or provided to another person at no cost*142 (1) This section applies to a person who

- (a) is an independent sales contractor of a direct seller,

- (b) has obtained an exclusive product from the direct seller or another independent sales contractor of the direct seller,
  - (c) has paid tax under section 99 [tax on acquisition of exclusive product by independent sales contractor] of the Act in relation to the exclusive product, and
  - (d) uses or consumes the exclusive product or provides the exclusive product to another person at no cost for use or consumption by that other person.
- (2) If this section applies to a person under subsection (1), the direct seller may, within 180 days of the date on which the person paid the tax under section 99 of the Act, refund or credit to the person an amount equal to the amount by which the amount of tax paid by the person under section 99 of the Act exceeds the amount of tax that would have been payable by the person in relation to the exclusive product under, as applicable,
- (a) section 37 [tax on purchase] of the Act if section 37 (2) (c.1) of the Act had not applied, or
  - (b) Division 4 [Tangible Personal Property Brought into British Columbia] of Part 3 of the Act if section 48 (a) [application of Division 4] of that Division had not applied.

Refund or credit if exclusive product returned to direct seller

- 143 (1) Subject to subsection (2), if
- (a) a person
    - (i) is an independent sales contractor of a direct seller,
    - (ii) has obtained an exclusive product from the direct seller or another independent sales contractor of the direct seller,
    - (iii) has paid tax under section 99 [tax on acquisition of exclusive product by independent sales contractor] of the Act in relation to the exclusive product, and
    - (iv) returns the exclusive product to the direct seller, and
  - (b) the direct seller refunds or credits to the person all or a portion of the consideration paid by the person for the purchase of the exclusive product,
- the direct seller may, at the time the refund or credit of the consideration is paid or allowed, refund or credit to the person the amount of tax paid by the person that is attributable to the amount of the refund or credit of the consideration.
- (2) A direct seller may pay or allow a refund or credit to a person under subsection (1) only if the refund or credit is paid or allowed within 180 days of the date on which the person paid the tax under section 99 of the Act.

Refund by director if direct seller does not provide refund or credit

- 144 (1) In this section, “relevant provision” means any of sections 140 to 143.

- (a) all of the requirements in a relevant provision for the payment of a refund or allowance of a credit to a person have been met, and
  - (b) the direct seller
    - (i) did not pay or allow the refund or credit, or
    - (ii) paid or allowed less than the full amount of the refund or credit,
- the director must refund to the person an amount equal to the amount of the refund or credit the direct seller did not pay or allow.
- (3) The director may require that a person request a direct seller to pay a refund or allow a credit under a relevant provision in relation to an exclusive product before the person may apply to the director for a refund under this section in respect of that exclusive product.

Refund by director for bad debts

- 145 (1) In this section, “transaction” means a transaction referred to in subsection (2) (d) of this section.
- (2) This section applies to a person in respect of an exclusive product if
- (a) the person is an independent sales contractor of a direct seller,
  - (b) the person has obtained the exclusive product from the direct seller or another independent sales contractor of the direct seller,
  - (c) the person has paid tax under section 99 [tax on acquisition of exclusive product by independent sales contractor] of the Act in relation to the exclusive product,
  - (d) the person sells the exclusive product to a purchaser,
  - (e) the person, in accordance with the Act, has levied the tax required to be levied under section 180 (1) [collection of tax by independent sales contractor] of the Act for the transaction,
  - (f) the purchaser does not pay to the person the full amount of the consideration in respect of the transaction, and
  - (g) the person within 4 years of the date on which the tax referred to in paragraph (c) was paid, writes off as unrealizable or uncollectable the amount owing by the purchaser.
- (3) If the director is satisfied that this section applies to a person in respect of an exclusive product, the director must refund to the person the portion, determined in accordance with subsection (4) of this section, of the amount of the tax paid by the person under section 99 of the Act in relation to the exclusive product.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3) of this section, the portion of the amount of the tax paid by a person under section 99 of the Act in relation to an exclusive product must be determined in accordance with the following formula:

PROVINCIAL SALES TAX EXEMPTION AND REFUND REGULATIONPart 8 – Refunds and Credits for Exclusive Products

- (b) acquired the tangible personal property from a person who used the tangible personal property in British Columbia as a taxable conveyance, as defined in section 59 [definitions – conveyances used interjurisdictionally] of the Act.
- (12) The exemptions under subsection (2) (a), (b) and (c) do not apply to a corporation in respect of tangible personal property unless
  - (a) the corporation and the previous owner of the tangible personal property remain related corporations for a period of at least 8 months after the transfer date, or
  - (b) all of the following requirements are met:
    - (i) the corporation and the previous owner of the tangible personal property were related corporations for a period of at least 8 months before the transfer date;
    - (ii) on or after the transfer date, the previous owner is dissolved or wound up under the Bank Act (Canada), the Business Corporations Act, the Canada Business Corporations Act or the Winding-up and Restructuring Act (Canada);
    - (iii) the corporation and the previous owner remain related corporations until such time as the previous owner is dissolved or wound up.
- (13) Subsections (14) and (15) apply to a corporation referred to in subsection (2) (a), (b) or (c) in respect of tangible personal property referred to in that subsection if
  - (a) the related corporation referred to in subsection (3) (a) of this section paid tax in respect of the tangible personal property only under section 60, 63, 64 or 66 of the Act, or
  - (b) the previous owner of the tangible personal property was exempt under this Division from all or a portion of tax imposed under section 60, 63 or 64 of the Act in respect of the tangible personal property.
- (14) For the purposes of the exemptions under subsection (2) (a), (b) and (c), a corporation to whom this subsection applies is exempt from tax imposed under Division 2, 4 or 5 or section 60, 63, 64 or 100 of Part 3 of the Act, as applicable, in respect of the tangible personal property in an amount that is equal to the lesser of
  - (a) the sum of the following:
    - (i) the amount of tax the previous owner paid in respect of the tangible personal property under sections 60, 63, 64 and 66 of the Act and for which the previous owner has not obtained and is not entitled to obtain a refund under the Act;
    - (ii) if the previous owner was exempt under this Division from all or a portion of tax imposed under section 60, 63 or 64 of the Act in respect of the tangible personal property, the amount determined under this paragraph or section 151 (12) (a) [tangible personal property]

  - (b) the amount of tax that, but for subsection (2) (a) or (b) of this section, would be payable by the corporation under section 66 of the Act in respect of the tangible personal property.
- (16) The exemptions under subsection (2) (a) and (b) of this section from tax imposed under section 66 of the Act do not apply to a corporation referred to in subsection (15) of this section in respect of tangible personal property unless the amount determined under subsection (14) (a) exceeds the amount determined under subsection (14) (b).

Tangible personal property leased from related corporation

- 150
- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (9), a corporation is exempt from tax imposed under Division 3 [Leases of Tangible Personal Property] or section 62 [tax if leased conveyance used in British Columbia] of Part 3 of the Act, as applicable, in respect of tangible personal property if the corporation, referred to in this section as the “lessee”, leases the tangible personal property from a related corporation, referred to in this section as the “lessor”.
  - (2) The exemption under subsection (1) does not apply to a corporation in respect of tangible personal property unless one or more of the following requirements are met:
    - (a) subject to subsections (3) to (5), a related corporation of either the lessee or the lessor
      - (i) paid tax under the Act, the Consumption Tax Rebate and Transition Act or the Social Service Tax Act in respect of the tangible personal property and has not obtained and is not entitled to obtain, under those Acts, a refund of that tax, or
      - (ii) paid tax, in respect of the tangible personal property, under section 165 (2), 212.1 or 218.1 or Division IV.1 of Part IX of the Excise Tax Act, in respect of British Columbia as a participating province under Part IX of that Act, and has not obtained and is not

  - (c) subject to subsection (6),
    - (i) the lessor, on or after July 1, 1948 but before July 1, 2010, acquired in British Columbia, brought or sent into British Columbia or received delivery of in British Columbia the tangible personal property, and
    - (ii) the lessor was not subject to, or was exempt from, tax under the Social Service Tax Act in respect of the acquiring in British Columbia, bringing or sending into British Columbia or receiving of delivery in British Columbia of the tangible personal property;
  - (d) subject to subsection (7),
    - (i) the lessor, on or after July 1, 2010 but before April 1, 2013, acquired in British Columbia, brought or sent into British Columbia or received delivery of in British Columbia the tangible personal property, and
    - (ii) the lessor would not have been subject to, or would have been exempt from, tax under the Act in respect of the tangible personal property, if the Act and the regulations made under it, as they read on April 1, 2013, had been in force during the period referred to in subparagraph (i);
  - (e) subject to subsection (8),
    - (i) the lessor, on or after April 1, 2013, acquired in British Columbia, brought or sent into British Columbia or received delivery of in British Columbia the tangible personal property, and
    - (ii) the lessor was not subject to, or was exempt from, tax under the Act in respect of the acquiring in British Columbia, bringing or sending into British Columbia or receiving of delivery in British Columbia of the tangible personal property.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2) (a) (i),
- (a) tax under the Act does not include tax under the following provisions of the Act:
    - (i) Division 3 [Leases of Tangible Personal Property] of Part 3;
    - (ii) Division 6 [Conveyances Used Interjurisdictionally] of Part 3;
    - (iii) Division 7 [Multijurisdictional Vehicles] of Part 3;
    - (iv) Division 11 [Energy Products] of Part 3;

- (b) tax under the Social Service Tax Act does not include tax under the following provisions of that Act:
  - (i) Division 2 [Tax in relation to Leases] of Part 2;
  - (ii) Division 3 [Tax in relation to Multijurisdictional Vehicles] of Part 2;
  - (iii) Division 9 [Environmental Levies] of Part 2.
- (4) The requirement set out in subsection (2) (a) is not met if the related corporation referred to in that subsection
  - (a) paid tax under the Act or the Social Service Tax Act in respect of a portion of the consideration for the tangible personal property,
  - (b) paid tax under section 165 (2), 212.1 or 218.1 or Division IV.1 of Part IX of the Excise Tax Act, in respect of British Columbia as a participating province under Part IX of that Act, in respect of a portion of the consideration for the tangible personal property, and
  - (c) obtained or is entitled to obtain, under Part IX of the Excise Tax Act, a refund, credit or rebate in respect of the tax referred to in paragraph (b) of this subsection.
- (5) If the related corporation referred to in subsection (2) (a) paid tax in respect of the tangible personal property only under one or both of
  - (a) section 51 [tax if tangible personal property brought into British Columbia for temporary use] of the Act, and
  - (b) section 12 [calculation of tax if use in British Columbia temporary] of the Social Service Tax Act,the requirement set out in subsection (2) (a) (i) of this section is met only if, by operation of section 51 (6) of the Act, no tax would have been payable under section 51 of the Act by that related corporation in respect of that tangible personal property, if section 51 had applied to that related corporation in respect of that tangible personal property immediately before the date on which that tangible personal property is leased by the lessee.
- (6) The requirement set out in subsection (2) (c) is not met if the lessor was not subject to, or was exempt from, tax under the Social Service Tax Act in respect of the tangible personal property because
  - (a) the lessor purchased in British Columbia, brought or sent into British Columbia or received delivery of in British Columbia the tangible personal property for resale or lease,
  - (b) the tangible personal property was used or was to be used for a particular purpose, or
  - (c) the tangible personal property was to be delivered or transported outside British Columbia, or was, in whole or in part, for use outside British Columbia.

- (7) The requirement set out in subsection (2) (d) is not met if the lessor of the tangible personal property would not have been subject to, or would have been exempt from, tax under the Act in respect of the tangible personal property because
- (a) the lessor purchased in British Columbia, brought or sent into British Columbia or received delivery of in British Columbia the tangible personal property for resale or lease,
  - (b) the tangible personal property was to be used for a particular purpose, or
  - (c) the tangible personal property was to be delivered or transported outside British Columbia, or was, in whole or in part, for use outside British Columbia.
- (8) The requirement set out in subsection (2) (e) is not met if the lessor of the tangible personal property was not subject to, or was exempt from, tax under the Act in respect of the tangible personal property because
- (a) the lessor purchased in British Columbia, brought or sent into British Columbia or received delivery of in British Columbia the tangible personal property for resale or lease,
  - (b) the tangible personal property was to be used for a particular purpose, or
  - (c) the tangible personal property was to be delivered or transported outside British Columbia, or was, in whole or in part, for use outside British Columbia.
- (9) The exemptions under subsection (1) do not apply to a corporation in respect of tangible personal property unless the lessee and the lessor continue to be related corporations at the time that, but for the exemption under subsection (1), tax would be payable under Division 3 [Leases of Tangible Personal Property] or section 62 [tax if leased conveyance used in British Columbia] of Part 3 of the Act, as applicable, in respect of the tangible personal property.

Tangible personal property transferred to new corporation – wholly owned and controlled*151 (1) In this section:

“previous owner”, in relation to tangible personal property, means the person referred to in subsection (2) (a) or (b), as applicable, from whom the corporation referred to in that subsection purchases or acquired, as applicable, the tangible personal property;

“transfer date” means the following:

- (a) in respect of tangible personal property referred to in subsection (2) (a), the date on which the tangible personal property is purchased by the corporation referred to in that subsection;
- (b) in respect of tangible personal property referred to in subsection (2) (b), the date on which the tangible personal property was acquired by the corporation referred to in that subsection.

- (a) paid tax under the Act or the Social Service Tax Act in respect of a portion of the consideration for the Part 4 software,
  - (b) paid tax under section 165 (2), 212.1 or 218.1 or Division IV.1 of Part IX of the Excise Tax Act, in respect of British Columbia as a participating province under Part IX of that Act, in respect of a portion of the consideration for the Part 4 software, and
  - (c) obtained or is entitled to obtain, under Part IX of the Excise Tax Act, a refund, credit or rebate in respect of the tax referred to in paragraph (b) of this subsection.
- (5) The requirement set out in subsection (3) (b) is not met if the previous owner of the Part 4 software was not subject to, or was exempt from, tax under the Social Service Tax Act in respect of the Part 4 software because
  - (a) the previous owner purchased in British Columbia, brought or sent into British Columbia or received delivery of in British Columbia the Part 4 software for resale, or
  - (b) the Part 4 software was used or was to be used for a particular purpose.
- (6) The requirement set out in subsection (3) (c) is not met if the previous owner of the Part 4 software would have been exempt,
  - (a) under section 113 of the Act, or
  - (b) because the Part 4 software was to be used for a particular purpose, from tax imposed under the Act in respect of the Part 4 software.
- (7) The requirement set out in subsection (3) (d) is not met if the previous owner of the Part 4 software was exempt,
  - (a) under section 113 of the Act, or
  - (b) because the Part 4 software was to be used for a particular purpose, from tax imposed under the Act in respect of the Part 4 software.
- (8) The exemptions under subsection (2) (a) and (b) do not apply to a corporation in respect of Part 4 software unless
  - (a) the corporation and the previous owner of the Part 4 software remain related corporations for a period of at least 8 months after the transfer date, or
  - (b) all of the following requirements are met:
    - (i) the corporation and the previous owner were related corporations for a period of at least 8 months before the transfer date;
    - (ii) on or after the transfer date, the previous owner is dissolved or wound up under the Bank Act (Canada), the Business Corporations Act, the Canada Business Corporations Act or the Winding-up and Restructuring Act (Canada);
    - (iii) the corporation and the previous owner remain related corporations until such time as the seller is dissolved or wound up.

- (9) Subsections (10) and (11) apply to a corporation referred to in subsection (2) (a) or (b) in respect of Part 4 software referred to in that subsection if
- (a) the related corporation referred to in subsection (3) (a) of this section paid tax in respect of the Part 4 software only under section 107 or 108 of the Act, or
  - (b) the previous owner of the Part 4 software was exempt under this Division from all or a portion of tax imposed under section 107 of the Act in respect of the Part 4 software.
- (10) For the purposes of the exemptions under subsection (2) (a) and (b), a corporation to whom this subsection applies is exempt from tax imposed under section 105, 106 or 107 of the Act, as applicable, in respect of the Part 4 software in an amount that is equal to the lesser of
- (a) the sum of the following:
    - (i) the amount of tax the previous owner paid in respect of the Part 4 software under sections 107 and 108 of the Act and for which the previous owner has not obtained and is not entitled to obtain a refund under the Act;
    - (ii) if the previous owner was exempt under this Division from all or a portion of tax imposed under section 107 of the Act in respect of the Part 4 software, the amount determined under this paragraph or section 154 (10) (a) [software transferred to new corporation – wholly owned and controlled] of this regulation, as applicable, for the purpose of the previous owner's exemption from tax, and
  - (b) the amount of tax that, but for subsection (2) (a) or (b) of this section, would be payable by the corporation under section 105, 106 or 107 of the Act, as applicable, in respect of the Part 4 software.
- (11) Subject to subsection (12), for the purposes of the exemptions under subsection (2) (a) and (b), a corporation to whom this subsection applies is exempt from tax imposed under section 108 of the Act in respect of the Part 4 software in an amount that is equal to the lesser of
- (a) the difference between the amount determined under subsection (10) (a) of this section and the amount determined under subsection (10) (b), and
  - (b) the amount of tax that, but for subsection (2) (a) or (b) of this section, would be payable by the corporation under section 108 of the Act in respect of the Part 4 software.
- (12) The exemptions under subsection (2) (a) and (b) of this section from tax imposed under section 108 of the Act do not apply to a corporation referred to in subsection (11) of this section in respect of Part 4 software unless the amount determined under subsection (10) (a) exceeds the amount determined under subsection (10) (b).

PROVINCIAL SALES TAX EXEMPTION AND REFUND REGULATION

Part 9 – Related Party Asset Transfers

Software transferred to new corporation – wholly owned and controlled*154 (1) In this section:

“previous owner”, in relation to Part 4 software, means the person referred to in subsection (2) (a) or (b), as applicable, from whom the corporation referred to in that subsection purchases the Part 4 software;

“transfer date” means the following:

- (a) in respect of Part 4 software referred to in subsection (2) (a), the date on which the Part 4 software is purchased by the corporation referred to in that subsection;
- (b) in respect of Part 4 software referred to in subsection (2) (b), the date on which the Part 4 software was purchased by the corporation referred to in that subsection.

(2) Subject to subsections (3), (8) and (10) to (12),

- (a) if section 105 [tax on software] or 107 (1) (b) (i) [tax on business use of software on devices in and outside British Columbia] of the Act applies to a corporation in relation to Part 4 software, the corporation is exempt from tax imposed under sections 105, 107 and 108 of the Act in relation to the Part 4 software if the corporation, at any time on or before the date on which the corporation starts to carry on business, purchases the Part 4 software from a person that wholly owns and controls it, and
- (b) if section 106 [tax on business use of software on device in British Columbia] or 107 (1) (b) (ii) of the Act applies to a corporation in relation to Part 4 software, the corporation is exempt from tax imposed under sections 106 to 108 of the Act in relation to the Part 4 software if the corporation, at any time on or before the date on which the corporation started to carry on business, purchased the Part 4 software from a person that wholly owned and controlled it.

(3) The exemptions under subsection (2) (a) and (b) do not apply to a corporation in respect of Part 4 software unless one or more of the following requirements are met:

- (a) subject to subsection (4), the previous owner of the Part 4 software
  - (i) paid tax under the Social Service Tax Act, other than Division 2 of Part 2 of that Act, in respect of the Part 4 software and has not obtained and is not entitled to obtain, under that Act, a refund of that tax,
  - (ii) paid tax, in respect of the Part 4 software, under section 165 (2), 212.1 or 218.1 or Division IV.1 of Part IX of the Excise Tax Act, in respect of British Columbia as a participating province under Part IX of that Act, and has not obtained and is not entitled to obtain, under Part IX of that Act, a refund of or a credit or rebate for that tax, or

- (iii) paid tax under Part 4 of the Act in respect of the Part 4 software and has not obtained and is not entitled to obtain, under the Act, a refund of that tax;
- (b) subject to subsection (5),
  - (i) the previous owner of the Part 4 software, before July 1, 2010, acquired in British Columbia, brought or sent into British Columbia or received delivery of in British Columbia the Part 4 software, and
  - (ii) the previous owner was not subject to, or was exempt from, tax under the Social Service Tax Act in respect of the acquiring in British Columbia, bringing or sending into British Columbia or receiving of delivery in British Columbia of the Part 4 software;
- (c) subject to subsection (6),
  - (i) the
    - (A) previous owner of the Part 4 software, on or after July 1, 2010 but before April 1, 2013, purchased the Part 4 software in British Columbia for use on or with an electronic device ordinarily situated in British Columbia, or
    - (B) previous owner of the Part 4 software purchased the Part 4 software and, on or after July 1, 2010 but before April 1, 2013, the Part 4 software was used on or with an electronic device ordinarily situated in British Columbia, and
  - (ii) the previous owner would have been exempt from tax imposed under section 105, 106 or 107 of the Act in respect of the purchase or use of the Part 4 software if the Act and the regulations made under it, as they read on April 1, 2013, had been in force during the period referred to in subparagraph (i);
- (d) subject to subsection (7),
  - (i) the
    - (A) previous owner of the Part 4 software, after April 1, 2013, purchased in British Columbia the Part 4 software for use on or with an electronic device ordinarily situated in British Columbia, or
    - (B) previous owner of the Part 4 software purchased the Part 4 software and, after April 1, 2013, the Part 4 software was used on or with an electronic device ordinarily situated in British Columbia, and
  - (ii) the previous owner was exempt from tax imposed under section 105, 106 or 107 of the Act in respect of the purchase or use of the Part 4 software.
- (4) The requirement set out in subsection (3) (a) is not met if the previous owner of the Part 4 software

- (a) paid tax under the Act or the Social Service Tax Act in respect of a portion of the consideration for the Part 4 software,
  - (b) paid tax under section 165 (2), 212.1 or 218.1 or Division IV.1 of Part IX of the Excise Tax Act, in respect of British Columbia as a participating province under Part IX of that Act, in respect of a portion of the consideration for the Part 4 software, and
  - (c) obtained or is entitled to obtain, under Part IX of the Excise Tax Act, a refund, credit or rebate in respect of the tax referred to in paragraph (b) of this subsection.
- (5) The requirement set out in subsection (3) (b) is not met if the previous owner of the Part 4 software was not subject to, or was exempt from, tax under the Social Service Tax Act in respect of the Part 4 software because
  - (a) the previous owner purchased in British Columbia, brought or sent into British Columbia or received delivery of in British Columbia the Part 4 software for resale, or
  - (b) the Part 4 software was used or was to be used for a particular purpose.
- (6) The requirement set out in subsection (3) (c) is not met if the previous owner of the Part 4 software would have been exempt,
  - (a) under section 113 of the Act, or
  - (b) because the Part 4 software was to be used for a particular purpose, from tax imposed under the Act in respect of the Part 4 software.
- (7) The requirement set out in subsection (3) (d) is not met if the previous owner of the Part 4 software was exempt,
  - (a) under section 113 of the Act, or
  - (b) because the Part 4 software was to be used for a particular purpose, from tax imposed under the Act in respect of the Part 4 software.
- (8) The exemptions under subsection (2) (a) and (b) do not apply to a corporation in respect of the Part 4 software unless the previous owner of the Part 4 software continues to wholly own and control the corporation for a period of at least 8 months after the transfer date.
- (9) Subsections (10) and (11) apply to a corporation referred to in subsection (2) (a) or (b) if the previous owner of the Part 4 software referred to in that subsection
  - (a) paid tax in respect of the Part 4 software only under section 107 or 108 of the Act, or
  - (b) was exempt under this Division from all or a portion of tax imposed under section 107 of the Act in respect of the Part 4 software.
- (10) For the purposes of the exemptions under subsection (2) (a) and (b), a corporation to whom this subsection applies is exempt from tax imposed under section 105,

106 or 107 of the Act, as applicable, in respect of the Part 4 software in an amount that is equal to the lesser of

- (a) the sum of the following:
  - (i) the amount of tax the previous owner paid in respect of the Part 4 software under sections 107 and 108 of the Act and for which the previous owner has not obtained and is not entitled to obtain a refund under the Act;
  - (ii) if the previous owner was exempt under this Division from all or a portion of tax imposed under section 107 of the Act in respect of the Part 4 software, the amount determined under this paragraph or section 153 (10) (a) [software transferred between related corporations] of this regulation, as applicable, for the purpose of the previous owner's exemption from tax, and
- (b) the amount of tax that, but for subsection (2) (a) or (b) of this section, would be payable by the corporation under section 105, 106 or 107 of the Act, as applicable, in respect of the Part 4 software.

(11) Subject to subsection (12), for the purposes of the exemptions under subsection (2) (a) and (b), a corporation to whom this subsection applies is exempt from tax imposed under section 108 of the Act in respect of the Part 4 software in an amount that is equal to the lesser of

- (a) the difference between the amount determined under subsection (10) (a) of this section and the amount determined under subsection (10) (b), and
- (b) the amount of tax that, but for subsection (2) (a) or (b) of this section, would be payable by the corporation under section 108 of the Act in respect of the Part 4 software.

(12) The exemptions under subsection (2) (a) and (b) of this section from tax imposed under section 108 of the Act do not apply to a corporation referred to in subsection (11) of this section in respect of Part 4 software unless the amount determined under subsection (10) (a) exceeds the amount determined under subsection (10) (b).

Software transferred to new corporation – not wholly owned and controlled

155 (1) In this section:

“previous owner”, in relation to Part 4 software, means the person referred to in subsection (2) (a) or (b), as applicable, from whom the corporation referred to in that subsection purchases the Part 4 software;

“transfer date” means the following:

- (a) in respect of Part 4 software referred to in subsection (2) (a), the date on which the Part 4 software is purchased by the corporation referred to in that subsection;
